Stefan Masek

Stefan Masek joined Horizon21 in October 2004. He is the Head of Wealth Management.

Stefan Masek has a proven track record in asset and portfolio management. He began his career in 1985 with UBS (formerly SBC) in Basel, Switzerland, in the private clients' portfolio management unit. In 1988 he relocated to UBS in Zurich, Switzerland. He headed bond and equity sales teams, advised foreign institutional clients and was appointed Assistant Vice President.

In 1993, he moved back to Basel and became Head of Asset Management of the Manor Pension Funds, where he managed the pension funds portfolio of CHF 1.5 billion. He altered the investment strategy of the funds and implemented an efficient "core-satellite approach". Under the guidance of Stefan Masek the pension funds began investing in hedge funds in 1996. Two years later a sizable private equity program was established. In addition he was responsible for cash management and credit/debit-card management for the Manor Group.

He holds a degree in economics from the Management School of Zurich, Switzerland.

Stefan Masek was born 1963. He is married and lives with his family in Switzerland.
